

Tell Hicks Bio

Tell is a professional artist, based in Somerset, UK. producing highly detailed, commissioned portraits, landscapes and wildlife paintings. A founding member of the IHS (International Herpetological Society), Tell is well known for his herpetological illustrations, and his passion for reptiles has taken him around the globe in the study of these fascinating creatures. He has played an active part in their conservation and gives regular lectures to natural history societies and specialist groups.